COMMENTS:

Today's market was very good on a light run due to the much needed rain that settled in yesterday afternoon/night. Seasonally, the runs start getting lighter in February/March due to the lack of calves being born in the hot summer months. Demand remains good on all classes of calves and looks to remain that way at least through the end of February. This year might offer more demand on into March as there looks to be a lot of wheat land to be grazed out this year that typically is not available when farmers pull off to top dress for harvest. Please feel free to call Derek if you have any questions about the market or when is the best time to market your cattle.
