As we wrap up the 2023 Roping Cattle Sales for the year, we would again like to thank everyone for their support and continued trust in us to represent their livestock. For going into the winter, this sale showed strong demand on all #1 classes of cattle. Longhorns and Longhorn crosses still sell at a discount compared to solid colored Corrientes.

As expected, ready to rope steers and heifers sold on a softer tone as demand from northern states falls off this time of year from limited ropings due to weather conditions. Potentials, however, sold strongly with good demand in anticipation for strong prices next Spring/Summer.

The first roping cattle sale of 2024 will be Saturday, February 3rd. We look forward to seeing everyone then for this one-day sale!
