We are looking forward to an exciting 2024 and our first Roping Cattle Sale of the year certainly did not disappoint. Excellent demand and buyer representation across the board made this sale a fun one! From top to bottom, the age and quality of the cows for this sale was one of our best offerings to date. Excellent buyer demand paired with a lighter offering kept the market strong from start to finish. There are several ranches across the south that are stocked very lightly, if at all. Many are expecting better conditions for this year's growing season and are looking to stock heavier going forward. Strong demand for better, younger bred cows and pairs should be expected this year so long as we have optimal growing conditions for rangeland. With fewer cows in cow/calf operations, there is, of course, fewer calves to market. Couple this with healthy demand for both beef calves and roping calves: Simple economics suggest prices should remain strong on ropers until there are more numbers to offer. We are looking forward to our next sale on April 5th & 6th. Call now to book your consignments and come see us!
