ROPING CATTLE SALE

MARKET REPORT

2065 HEAD
128 CONSIGNERS
75 ACTIVE BUYERS

Unprecedented prices continue throughout the beef industry as the shortage of cattle combined with strong demand together maintain a very healthy market. Roping cattle are no different and last weekend's roping cattle sale reflected this. Both days were very active with strong demand for good, young stocker cows/pairs as well as good #1 ropers and potentials. Keep in mind our next roping cattle sale will be June 6th and 7th. Books are open now ready to take in consignments so call them in early to save a spot in the next sale.
